The two men then left, and he did o also as soon as he saw Goldstein bleeding of freely and readining unconscious.

Though both Tocol and Scarlato assert that they were never in the house before, or knew etters Lenn Jacobs or Julia doskolski, the police believe that they did igquent the house and did know the women.

Scarlato's story about the wo strange men and that one of them shot Goldstein is believed also to be a trabfrication.

Seariatio's story about the wo strange men and that one of them shot Goldstein is believed also to be a irabricatio.

Goldstein's hat, a light-browd derby, shows on the left side an inclead cut, just like actiletto stab, penetrating through the brims and sweat band. A stream it thool is on, the cusside point of entrance. No signs of powder marks are visible on the bat.

The police think that Scariatto and Goldstein was the local about the women, and that the former stabbed Goldstein and then ran away.

They also discovered that lens Jacobs was not in the house on Monday afternoop when Goldstein was killed.

This morning Scariatto, Treel, Julis Moskolski and Lens Jacobs were brought to the Tomits for examination. There well so the held as a witness.
